MINNOW

We own restaurants in NYC, twice named the best in the country by Bon Appétit. We know the home chef deserves great fish like we have access to, and our mission is to bring Minnow to the pantries of America. We source our seafood from a handful of canneries around the world that work locally with sustainable fisheries and farms to pack our product in tins where it's caught, when it's caught at the height of the season. Our differentiator is our fish. We keep the rest simple: minimal ingredients with minimal packaging.

Restaurant quality, sustainable seafood from NYC restaurateurs.

Jesse & Ben's

We're Jesse & Ben - the guys behind the fries! We spent the last 10 years perfecting the art of making house-cut fries at our restaurants. When COVID almost shut us down, we made a frozen version of our famous fries to try to stay afloat. Little did we know we had stumbled on the perfect restaurant-quality frozen fries that we wish we had as kids. Our fries are made using heart-healthy avocado oil or grass-fed beef tallow so you can enjoy fries that not only taste better, but are better for you, too!
